KING STARTS LIBERAL PARTY CAMPAIGN

MOVE TO POSTPONE EMPIRE MEETING

Nations Consider Suggestion
in View of Federal General
Election in Canada

Oct. 5 Date Originally Set;
Canadian Representation is Greatly Desired

Ottawa, July 23 (Canadian Press).—The Government has received the suggestion of the British Government that the Imperial Conference, set to start October 5, be postponed. Sir Henry Drayton, Acting Premier, is in Toronto and it is not likely a definite reply will be sent to London until he returns on Monday.

While no official opinion is available, it is supposed Canada will welcome the suggestion. It is probable on Canada's account, to a large extent, that the postponement is suggested. The general election here will take place only three weeks before the date originally set for the conference and it would have been difficult for members of whichever Government is elected to attend the conference starting on October 5.

REPRESENTATION DESIRED
It is known the British Government is very anxious to have representation from the Canadian Government at the conference. It is suggested that the postponement may be the outcome of some negotiations between Ottawa and London. This, however, can not be confirmed.

SUPPORTED BY BRUCE
Montreal, July 23 (Canadian Press Cable Via Reuters).—Premier Stanley Bruce this afternoon declared himself in favor of a short postponement of the Imperial Conference, which had been set to start October 5.

A postponement was suggested by the British Government at the request of Canada. It is understood, and the Dominion Premier are being asked their views.

London, July 23 (Canadian Press Cable).—According to The London Daily Mail to-day, the British Government, in response to a request from Canada, has communicated with the other Dominions asking whether they would agree to a postponement of the Imperial Conference for two weeks. It was originally set to begin October 5.

PREMIERS DISCUSS RAILWAY PROBLEMS

Oliver and Brownlee in Edmonton Exchange Views on Peace River Area

Edmonton, July 23.—Hon. John Oliver and Hon. John E. Brownlee, premiers of British Columbia and Alberta, respectively, spent this morning in conference upon the northern railway situation. Mr. Oliver reached the city on the morning train, having come from Victoria for the particular purpose of talking things over with the Alberta leader.

The two premiers did not come to any decision, nor agree definitely upon any new policy in regard to the railway problems, but it is understood the results of their conversation will be carried farther and will be reported to their respective governments for consideration.

An impression obtains, based evidently upon information from the British Columbia coast during the past few months, that Premier Oliver is negotiating with outside interests for a possible sale of the Pacific Great Eastern.

ACCUSED MAN MADE ESCAPE FROM POLICE

Peace Officers of Greater
Vancouver District Search
For Edward Baker

Lynn Valley, July 23.—Police throughout Greater Vancouver, particularly on the north shore of Burrard Inlet, are searching for Edward Baker, forty, who escaped from the custody of Chief Constable W. W. Hemmingway at the North Vancouver district police headquarters in Lynn Valley this morning.

Police headquarters will be set on his trail this afternoon.

He was being conducted by Chief Hemmingway from his car to a motor car, to be driven to West Vancouver, when he broke away.

He faces charges of having stolen property in West and North Vancouver and a charge of arson in North Vancouver district. Vancouver City police also have a charge against him.

He was brought back from McMillville, Ore., two weeks ago to face trial.

POINCARÉ CABINET PREPARING PLANS

New National Ministry of France to Face Chamber of Deputies Tuesday

Finance Bill Then; Premier to Talk With U.S. Secretary
Mellon

Paris, July 23.—Raymond Poincaré, three times Premier of France, and President of the republic during the World War, to-day constituted his fourth cabinet after thirty-six hours of effort.

The Cabinet is composed of political veterans, including with M. Poincaré no fewer than six former Premiers. All the others have been cabinet ministers before, with the exception of the Labor Minister, and he is a son of the late President Fallières.

After visiting the Elysee Palace to inform President Doumergue of his success, M. Poincaré said to newspapermen: "We wanted to form a cabinet in which all parties would be represented, without taking account too closely of the representation of groups. We have tried to find our task in the most high-minded spirit possible."

He added he had found no difficulties in his path because he had insisted upon forming the cabinet without regard to personal preferences.

MINISTERS MEET
An informal cabinet meeting was held at M. Poincaré's home this afternoon.

The Premier announced that at the same time as the Chamber of Deputies next Tuesday, he would introduce his financial bill.

M. Poincaré was loudly cheered by a crowd outside the Elysee Palace and he left after seeing the President.

CABINET LIST
The Cabinet is composed of the following:

Premier and Minister of Finance—Raymond Poincaré.
Foreign Affairs—Aristide Briand.
Justice—Louis Barthou.
Interior—Albert Sarraut.
War—Paul Painlevé.
Marine—Georges Leygues.
Public Works—Maurice Bokanowski.
Education—Edouard Herriot.
Labor—André Fallières.
Commerce—André Tardieu.
Colonies—Leon Perrier.
Agriculture—Dr. André Quevelin.

M. Poincaré announced that in addition to his other duties he would take over the Ministry of the Colonies, while Mr. Barthou, in addition to acting as Minister of Agriculture, would take care of the affairs of Alsace-Lorraine.

TO SEE M. LLOD
Paris, July 23.—Premier Poincaré, after presenting his new cabinet to President Doumergue to-day, said he counted on having a talk with Andrew Mellon, secretary of the United States Treasury, who arrived in France to-day.

The Premier said the first question presented certain difficulties about which he wished to consult Secretary Mellon.

OLD DYNAMITE IS CAUSE OF DEATHS

Five Men Killed in Virginia
When Lightning Hit Charge
in Stone Quarry

Strasburg Junction, Va., July 23.—Lightning which struck a forgotten charge of dynamite was held responsible to-day for the deaths of five men and the critical injury of four others in the Powhatan Stone Quarry here.

The dynamite was deposited in a niche fifteen years ago and none of those working in the quarry had given thought to it for years until a lightning flash and a deafening explosion late yesterday sent tons of rock hurtling through the air. The victims endeavored to find shelter, but were unsuccessful.

CHURCH ARRESTS ARE MADE IN MEXICO

New Religious Law Leads to Detention of Archbishop Rio
and Bishop Diaz

Troops Ordered to be Ready to Keep Order August 1
When Churches Closed

Nogales, Arizona, July 23.—A special Mexico City message to The Nogales Herald says Dr. Jose Maria Moray Del Rio, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Mexico, and Dr. Pascual Diaz, Bishop of Tabasco, have been arrested on federal warrants signed by the Mexican Attorney-General, charging them with violations of the new Mexican religious laws.

TROOPS TO BE GUARDS
Nogales, Ariz., July 23.—A semi-official dispatch to The Nogales Herald from Mexico City to-day said the Secretary of War in the Cabinet of President Calles had ordered all federal troops in Mexico to be under arms and ready for instant action on August 1, at which time, reports previously stated, Catholic churches throughout the nation will be closed under orders from high ecclesiastical officials.

LEAGUE OFFICIALS CLOSED
Mexico City, July 23.—The police closed the offices of the National League for Defense of Religious Liberty, which recently is alleged to have been carrying out propaganda against the new religious law. About twenty-five persons found "in the office" were arrested.

Later, all those arrested were released, except three of the league leaders, who are alleged to have signed a recent appeal for "an economic boycott" in opposition to the new religious regulations.

MANY PRIESTS LEAVE
Mexico City, July 23.—Rev. Father Silvio Hoyos of the Roman Catholic Church of Carmen here predicts Mexico soon will be without Catholic priests.

Father Hoyos made this prediction in the first district court. He also predicted that three of the league leaders, who are alleged to have signed a recent appeal for "an economic boycott" in opposition to the new religious regulations, and that many others were preparing to leave.

Father Hoyos appeared voluntarily in the court. He said that although he had not been arrested, he feared he would be punished for having failed to register with the municipal authorities under the new law. He feared he would be punished for having failed to register with the municipal authorities under the new law.

Judgment was postponed in the case of the thirty-seven priests charged with not having registered. PRAYERS ASKED

Chicago, July 23.—Cardinal Mundelein, in a letter to be read next Sunday in all Roman Catholic churches of the Chicago diocese, criticizes the Mexican Government for what he terms a "conspiracy in attempting to stamp out religious freedom and the sacred Catholic faith in particular."

The letter, made public to-day, bids the parishioners to use the "spiritual weapon" of world-wide prayer in obeying the designation by Pope Pius IX of August 1 as a "day of universal prayer for the stricken church of Mexico."

Well-known Provincial Civil Servant Had Resided Here

In his passing Victoria loses one of her well-known old-time residents, for although making little show in public life Mr. Beckwith was widely known and respected.

The late Mr. Beckwith, who is a brother of James L. Beckwith, a former mayor of Victoria, was seventy-three years of age. He entered the Provincial Government service in April, 1887, and had been clerk of the Lands Department for a great many years, remaining in that office until over seven by the illness which led to his death.

HEAT DEATH TOTAL IS MORE THAN FIFTY

July Wave Takes Big Toll in Eastern U.S.; Storms Bring Relief

New York, July 23.—Destructive storms brought weather relief to-day to New England and the middle Atlantic States, but increased by three scores the death toll from the heat wave that piled up new high temperature records.

Within twenty-four hours fifty-seven deaths were added by heat and storm to Wednesday's toll of two score killed in the East and Midwest. The Midwest got relief in rain and cooling breezes early yesterday, but the East sweated until last night.

There were twenty-two deaths in New England traceable to the heat or storms, ten in New York City, eleven in New Jersey, two each in Washington and Philadelphia and several in upstate New York.

The highest official temperature recorded was 107 in Hagerstown, Pa. The mercury reached 104 in Lancaster, Vermont, 103 in Washington and Reading, 102 in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware. Four persons were temporarily insane in Binghamton, N.Y. Dogs maddened by the heat attacked children in Jersey City. Experiments in Boston and Lowell tried eggs on brick-roads.

The storm continued for three hours, piling up hail in some places to a depth of seven inches. No loss of life has been reported.

HARMONY REIGNS ON FREIGHT CASE. SAYS SCHWENGER

No Dispute Exists Between Mayor Pendray and President, He Claims

"There are no differences between Mayor Pendray and myself. I have no expectation of or desire for an apology for remarks based on a misunderstanding," declared Ernest Schwengers of the Chamber of Commerce, when reporting on the hearings before the Board of Railway Commissioners recently as to freight rates revision.

J. O. Cameron moved and A. J. Watson seconded the following resolution: "That the brief sent in to the Railway Commission in September, 1925, was duly authorized by this board, and that in so doing it was contemplated and was the intention of this board that the presiding should appear before the commissioners in support and explanation of this brief."

When moving the resolution Mr. Cameron said that the work of many years should not be sacrificed, and advantages gained by Victoria should be retained in any adjustments made by the Board of Railway Commissioners.

Mayor Pendray said he was in full accord with President Schwengers and favored adoption of the resolution. Replying to Mr. Goulding Wilson, the Mayor said remarks by him regarding loss by Victoria of industries, which had been a controversial subject, had been explicit in pointing out that freights were only one factor in the loss.

The resolution then carried.

TO FOLLOW UP FIGHT
President C. P. W. Schwengers informed the directors that he has notified the Railway Commission of his willingness to proceed to the East at his own expense to give further evidence and submit himself to cross-examination, waived at the Victoria sessions because of ill-health.

five Miles North of Vancouver

Fanned by a strong wind, the fire near Powell River, which had been practically extinguished, again became menacing last night. One hundred and forty men are fighting the blaze, and according to latest advices have succeeded in holding it in check.

Overcast skies to-day gave promise of rainfall, which is urgently needed to prevent recurrence of last week's serious fire situation.

Mackenzie King, Leader of the Liberal Party, will deliver in the Ottawa City Auditorium is awaited with great interest. It will open the Liberal campaign throughout Canada and indicate clearly the policies which will be laid before the people by the numerous Liberal speakers throughout the country between now and September 14, polling day.

It will be delivered in the same great hall in which Premier Meighen opened his campaign, and it is expected Mr. King will deal analytically with the chief statements made by the Conservative leader on that occasion.

The address here will mark the beginning of a coast-to-coast tour Mr. King has planned, which is expected to bring him to Victoria and Vancouver in the latter part of August.

On the platform with the ex-Premier to-night will be 300 prominent Liberals of Ontario, and Hon. Ernest Lapointe, former Minister of Justice, will be among the speakers.

The auditorium has been arranged in anticipation of a very large attendance.

In addition to the two main speeches, there will be addresses by the chairman, P. D. Wilson, president of the Ottawa Liberal Association, and probably other members of the party.

TO REVIEW RECORD
Mr. King, it is understood, will review the record of the Liberal administration, pointing out the list of constructive measures put on the statute books, and replying to the remarks Mr. Meighen made here Tuesday night on the customs in-crease.

While the rallying call of the Liberals is being made here to-night, Premier Meighen will speak in St. John in the progress of his tour of the Maritime Provinces.

Monday will see the return of half a dozen cabinet ministers to the capital, and it is likely a cabinet meeting will be called.

MR. MEIGHEN SPEAKS IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Premier Starts His Maritime Province Election Campaign in That City

Moncton, N.B., July 22.—At a meeting here last night, Premier Meighen opened his Federal general election campaign tour of the Maritime Provinces.

He thought the difficulties of the Maritime Provinces were two-fold, namely, transportation and the tariff.

FORMATION OF CABINET

"To the utmost of my power," said Mr. Meighen, "I sought to construct a business government. And if Canada ever needed a group of business men to rescue her affairs from the slough into which they had fallen to put them on a proper basis and to give the taxpayers a chance, Canada needs that kind of government now."

"I believe that in the tariff adjustments and tinkering of the last five years," said Mr. Meighen, "the rights of these provinces have been totally ignored and discriminated against. The other difficulty is one of transportation. You look now for such steps to be taken and policies adopted at the cost of the whole nation as will realize the expectations of Confederation."

LOOKS FOR ADVICE

"With this object in mind I felt the right thing to do was to face the problem squarely and to give the Maritimes that portfolio which has most directly and centrally to do with transportation. It will not be the fault of the minister if these problems are not wholly understood by the new Government. "I know we shall not solve the problem by merely appointing a minister. That is merely a step toward solution, but I assure you Hon. W. A. Black's word will go far; and his advice as to the solution of Maritime problems will be heeded very generally, if not altogether."

INTERCOLONIAL PROBLEM

He made light of rumors that he was about to propose some scheme for taking the Intercolonial Railway away from the Canadian National system. The solution of the transportation problem, he claimed, did not depend so much on who managed the Intercolonial as it depended on the rates "on whether the country can take your products over the Intercolonial."

"I believe," Mr. Meighen proceeded, "the jurisdiction of the Railway Commission should remain intact, but I realize the Dominion of Canada should itself assist rates upon such basic products as are to reach our central provinces."

If declared it to be his intention, if returned to power, to remove the discrimination against the Maritime Provinces in the steel rates.

CUSTOMS INQUIRY

He attacked, as a result of the customs inquiry, the recovery of the Liberal Party in office. He said the evidence given before the customs committee did not reflect "in any title" on any administration prior to the King Government.

He said that while the Liberals had removed the luxury tax on Canadian-made automobiles, they had increased the sale tax on clothing by 65 to 75 per cent.

Mr. Meighen asked what the King Government had done to assist the Maritime Provinces.

Mr. Meighen charged Liberals with log-rolling for Progressive votes.

CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUE

On the constitutional question Mr. Meighen took the ground that while it was the duty of the Governor-General to follow the advice of properly constituted ministers, the right to refuse dissolution might properly be expected if the motive were merely seeking to evade responsibility to Parliament.

HIS TARIFF POLICY

Mr. Meighen declared his policy to be, honest administration of public affairs and a tariff which would make for stability. He urged maintenance of a "consistent tariff structure" over the whole field of industry—to maintain it not on a high, on a stable, sure basis, so that every man can depend on it staying there, so that every workman can make plans in accordance therewith.

SEATTLE BUSINESS BARONS ENJOYING CAMP LIFE HERE

Banish Care For Four Days Under Canvass by Whitty's Blue Lagoon.

Master Chef, Waiter and Servants For Super Campers Arriving on Palatial Yacht

One hundred and seventy members of the University Club of Seattle are enjoying life under canvas on the borders of Whitty's Lagoon, Esquimalt. Coming here Thursday last aboard the palatial yacht "John W. Eddy," from Seattle, the jolly party of professional men are on a four-day here, spending their days playing golf and enjoying themselves amid the beauty and splendor of Victoria's Summer time outdoors.

SUPER CAMP LIFE

With a master chef and a staff of waiters and other servants, the University Club members are enjoying their vacation outing to the utmost. They have chosen a camping spot which is set among trees and by a warm stretch of water where bathing is excellent. Most of the campers take a morning dip and find it pleasant and invigorating.

On Monday they will make their departure, according to plans. They return to Seattle the same way as they came, aboard Mr. Eddy's yacht.

These business kings and professional leaders from the city across the Gulf are dodging all publicity. Although they might provide much interesting material individually, they have formed themselves into a phalanx of unapproachable incurability, and will not talk for publication.

HOLIDAY ABSOLUTE

"We are here on a holiday, and I don't think any of us want to talk for newspapers," said one of the party when captured this morning. He maintained his silence in the face of all questions, and absolutely refused, gracefully and politely, but obstinately, to give one sentence of interview to the hungry public. With a plunge into the cool, inviting waters he definitely ended the conversation.

A number of this party of wealthy visitors have been in Victoria recently, motorizing to points of interest and trying out the courses over the various local golf links. They have found all of them satisfactory.

"I am satisfied that Victoria possesses some of the finest links in America," says one of these visitors. Beyond golf he would talk of nothing.

TO DECIDE FUTURE OF WATERFRONT

Pattullo to Put Occupation of Cowichan Foreshore on Permanent Basis

The future of Cowichan Bay foreshore, a question of interest to people all over the Cowichan Valley and to many Victorians as well, will be arranged by the Provincial Lands Department shortly on the basis of careful investigations under way now, Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, stated to-day.

The minister intimated that the Government would decide definitely what land along the Cowichan Bay waterfront should be reserved permanently for the use of the public and what portion should be made available for the erection of necessary buildings for industrial operations. He explained that no leases of foreshore have been granted along the Bay so far, and that the legal right of any person to build a house or a wharf there is good as that of the present occupants of the beach. The Government, he said, could not agree to the principle of allowing certain people to occupy the foreshore and prevent anyone else from exercising the same privilege. He added that the matter would be fully investigated before any permanent policy governing the holding of the foreshore lands was announced.

Innumerable varieties of flowers bloomed in profusion and fragrance this afternoon when His Honor Lieut.-Governor R. R. Randolph Bruce, with a few complimentary words, opened the third annual Summer show of the Victoria and District Gardeners' Association, in the Crystal Garden banquet hall. The spacious room affords excellent opportunity for a display of this nature, and the whole formed an exceptionally beautiful sight.

A total of nearly 400 entries were received for the show this year, the exhibitors numbering between eighty and ninety. All exhibits are exceedingly well-executed, showing to the best advantage the showman will continue until to-morrow evening, promises to be one of the finest Summer displays yet held.

After the opening of the show this afternoon Mr. McKenzie, who accompanied His Honor, was presented with a beautiful hand bouquet by Joan Boulter, pretty little daughter of the secretary of the association. At the conclusion of the opening ceremonies, His Honor and Mrs. McKenzie made a tour of the show-rooms and were well pleased with the fine display. A large crowd attended the opening.

Judging of the exhibits commenced about 1 o'clock. C. Thomas and J. Randall were the judges for the vegetable exhibits and J. Fyfe Smith, well-known florist, was judge for the flowers. The display included some of the very best varieties of gladioli grown to-day including the "Golden Dream," a very expensive line just received to the city. Nearly 500 varieties were included in their exhibit.

R. M. Palmer, the Cobble Hill flower grower, also chose gladioli as the basis of his display, showing flowers of nearly every shade and a large number of beautiful blooms. An exceedingly well got up display was that of the Rockholme Gardens, whose miniature rock garden drew forth much favorable comment. Albert Wainwright, the head gardener of the Parliament Buildings, displayed a large table of exquisite roses. George Robinson of Elk Lake had an excellent sweet pea exhibit.

Over one-half of the room was occupied by flower displays, including decorated tables, pot plant displays, cut flower displays and single flowers of nearly every variety.

The other portion of the room was filled with vegetable exhibits. Among these the group for a vegetable collection of children under sixteen years of age was very noticeable. One in particular being a model house, path and garden formed from different sorts of vegetables was well commented upon. All common garden vegetables were displayed, some extremely well-grown potatoes and marrows being noticeable.

The show will be open all day to-morrow, closing in the evening, when the prizes will be given and the Walter Nichol Cup for the grand aggregate of points awarded.

DENTIST TRAVELS FAR TO ATTEND CONGRESS

Dr. E. V. Donaldson, one of the most prominent dentists of Christchurch, New Zealand, was a passenger on the R.M.S. Niagara.

Dr. Donaldson is en route to the United States for a six months' study course. From Vancouver he will proceed to Toronto and from there will travel down to New York, where he will attend the first International Orthodontic Congress which is being held commencing August 16, at the Baltimore Hotel. From New York Dr. Donaldson will proceed to Philadelphia to attend the seventh International Dental Congress, which will be attended by dentists from all over the United States and Canada and other parts of the world.

The visitor stated that he intended to remain in this country for at least six months.

She Was Weak, Thin and Nervous

One of the greatest strength-givers and producers of good healthy flesh in the world is Cod Liver Extract—full of vitamins.

Thank goodness! that now, when a woman is weak and haggard and doesn't weigh what she ought to, she knows where to go for help as all druggists are now selling McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets, sugar-coated, and as easy to take as candy. And it's a mighty good thing for skinny, run-down men and women to know that they can get the real Cod Liver vitamins in condensed form, that they can easily carry with them wherever they travel.

Men and women, weak, thin and nervous, are urged to put on weight and get back their health and strength with these wonderful tablets. One woman gained 15 pounds in five weeks and that's going fast enough for anyone. Only 40 cents for 60 tablets, and if they don't put five pounds of flesh on any thin person in 30 days—why, money back and no quibbling about it, either.

But be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine. Vancouver Drug Co., MacFarlane Drug Co., Owl Drug Co. and druggists everywhere are selling lots of them. (Adv.)

Violent Deaths in Eastern Canada

Ottawa, July 23.—Violent deaths in Ontario yesterday included the following:
 James Horton of Fenwick was instantly killed at Welland, Ontario, when timber he was helping to load on a wagon rolled off and crushed him.
 Alex Neas, seventy-eight, fell off a rafter and was instantly killed in helping to build a barn at Barrie, Ontario.
 Douglas Elder, three years old, was drowned when he fell off a breakwater at Toronto while attempting to catch minnows with his hand.

 The body of an unclotted newborn female baby was recovered from the Grand River at Dunnville, Ontario.

FOREST FIRE CHECKED

Fort Worden, Wash., July 23.—A fire of the United States army here, after being threatened with destruction by a forest fire for twenty-four hours, was declared safe to-day. The flames, which had raced through timber which surrounded the fort, were checked last night by troops garrisoned here.

OHIO MURDER INQUIRY FAILS

Canton, Ohio, July 23.—The mystery of the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton newspaper publisher, remains as impenetrable as on the eighth day since his death as the night into which his slayers escaped.
 Although five men, apprehended at Akron, Ohio, yesterday, were subjected to a grilling, they told little that would indicate any knowledge of the crime. In one instance, authorities said, the answers of the men differed regarding the time they had spent in Canton on the day before Mellett was fatally wounded as he closed the doors of his garage. Pete Margas told of leaving Akron for Canton at 4 a.m. on July 15 with John Demos and returning to Akron at 9 p.m. Demos declared they left at 4 p.m. and returned to Akron at 11 p.m. Mellett was shot shortly after midnight on July 16.

INDIAN HISTORY IS STUDIED IN ALASKA

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 23.—Progress by Dr. Alex Hrdlicka of the Smithsonian Institution in an attempt to prove a theory that American Indians crossed Bering Strait from Asia to Alaska many centuries ago was reported here to-day.
 A letter from Rev. John Chapman, a missionary, said Dr. Hrdlicka, in excavations made at Bonasila, twenty miles above Anvik on the lower Yukon River, had uncovered well-preserved pottery and trinkets and a force on which he said natives of a past age made knives and weapons.
 Dr. Hrdlicka pronounced the discoveries valuable.

Toronto, July 23.—Dr. Horace Eugene Eaton, a prominent local dentist and a member of the Canadian Hygiene Council and the Ontario Oral Hygiene Committee, died here yesterday in his sixty-sixth year.

PRINCE OF WALES HAD BUSY DAY

London, July 23.—(Canadian Press Cable).—The Prince of Wales yesterday spent one of the busiest days of his life. He made his first official visit to the Isle of Wight and motored sixty miles over practically the island's whole area.
 At Ryde he opened the new wing of the county hospital; he opened the new tuberculosis sanatorium at Ventnor; he christened a new lifeboat at Yarmouth; visited the agricultural show at Newport, and inspected the British Legion and Boy Scouts and Girl Guides, also at Newport.
 The authorities at Newport, Ryde and Cowes presented him with addresses, and at Cowes he received the freedom of the city.

Tribute to Youth Who Was Drowned

Toronto, July 23.—"He was one of the best boys' workers in Canada," a prominent Toronto boy worker said to-day in paying tribute to Arthur Robert Shea-Butcher, a director of junior work for the St. Andrew's Brotherhood, who gave up his life in the tragedy at Balsam Lake, Ontario, where on Tuesday night eleven youths of St. James Anglican Church, Toronto, were drowned when a large canoe capsized.
 Shea-Butcher was of English birth and came to this country as a lad. His parents both died while he was still a child. Some four years later he was officially adopted by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Shea of Toronto, and adopted their name while still retaining his own name of Butcher. Shea-Butcher lived for some time in Calgary, where he enlisted in 1914 with the Port Garry House and went overseas.

NOT "HIGH" BUT "STABLE"

THE MORNING PAPER REPORTS MR. MEIGHEN in his speech at Moncton, N.B., as picturing prosperity for the Maritime Provinces if Conservative policies were made effective.

Unfortunately for that picture, Conservative policies were in effect from 1911 to 1921 under the administrations of Sir Robert Borden and Mr. Meighen, and the Maritime Provinces continued to lose ground.

According to Mr. F. B. McCurdy, a former Federal Conservative Cabinet Minister, the Maritime Provinces are suffering from too much tariff. Their development is being strangled in the interests of a few powerful groups in Central Canada who control the political destinies of the Conservative Party.

Hence a discussion of the tariff is a delicate business for Mr. Meighen, who gives us a new conception of Conservative policy. It is no longer a tariff as "high as that of the United States" or "brick for brick, stone for stone," to quote our own Dr. Tolmie and Mr. Dickie, but a tariff that would "make for stability." There is to be "a consistent tariff structure over the whole field of industry to maintain it, not on a high, but on a sure basis."

We wonder if anybody knows what that means. The people of the Maritime Provinces certainly do not, and we doubt if Mr. Meighen is able to interpret it. No longer a "high" tariff, no longer even "adequate protection," but "stable protection." What is the answer to the conundrum?

The answer is simply that Mr. Meighen dare not say in this election, as he did in the last election, what the Conservative Party proposes to do to the tariff, because he is afraid of the political effect in the Maritime Provinces and the Prairie Provinces where a high tariff is anathema. But "actions speak louder than words," and whatever Mr. Meighen may say, his inclusion of Messrs. Chaplin and Ryckman, motor car magnates, in his Cabinet, not to overlook the other five advocates of high protection from Ontario, should indicate pretty definitely what his policy really is.

MISS BONDFIELD BACK AGAIN

MISS MARGARET BONDFIELD, who came to Canada eighteen months ago on immigration business, is once again a member of the British House of Commons. She contested the by-election in the Wallsend division of Northumberland, a seat made vacant by the retirement of Sir Patrick Hastings, Attorney-General in the Ramsay MacDonald Government. Her total vote was 18,856, with the Conservative and Liberal candidates trailing behind with 9,839 and 4,000 votes respectively.

While Miss Bondfield's election does not change the standing of the parties in the House of Commons, where she sat in the Labor regime as parliamentary secretary to the Ministry of Labor, her large majority is an indication that the fortunes of the party whose standard she bears has not suffered as a result of the industrial dislocation of the last few months. It also shows that the Labor gain in Hammersmith, three weeks after the general strike ended, was not a mere flash in the pan.

When Sir Patrick Hastings contested Wallsend in 1922 he was opposed by a Conservative, a Liberal, and a National Liberal, and his vote was 14,248 with a combined total against him of 16,173; in 1923, in a straight fight between himself and a Conservative, Sir Patrick obtained a majority of 3,176; in 1924, with the Conservative whom Miss Bondfield has just beaten as his opponent, the margin between the two was reduced to 2,602. Now, however, Miss Bondfield comes out of a three-cornered contest with a plurality over Conservative and Liberal combined of no less than 5,017.

Miss Bondfield is an exceedingly able woman. She is at all times moderate in her views; but naturally a staunch disciple of Labor's cause. She is a foe of the reds and some of the extremists criticized her for her more tolerant attitude during the strike. But industrial Wallsend has approved of her in no uncertain manner. This is the best test.

WHAT GENERAL McRAE FOUND

THERE IS AT LEAST ONE CONSERVATIVE in the Dominion of Canada who seems to prefer the truth to fairy tales. He is General A. D. McRae, founder of the erstwhile Provincial Party in British Columbia, but a warm supporter of Mr. Meighen and his policies. This is what he said in Winnipeg yesterday:

Business conditions in Canada right now are very much better than in the United States and are steadily improving.

This puts General McRae in a class with the two railway presidents, all the chief bank executives, and many keen students of economics. It lines him up in opposition to his party leader and the press which supports him. They are clamoring for what they call stability; but they are making a poor show at explaining just what they mean.

But it is too bad that General McRae should make his unkind comparison at a time when the morning paper, for instance, is telling us how the sons and daughters of Canada are still pouring into the United States in order to enjoy the great benefits which they think that country is able to shower on them because we sell her a lot of raw materials.

After all, General McRae ought to know what he is talking about. The special dispatch to The Vancouver Province from which we have quoted says that he is on his way West after an extended visit to the neighboring republic—the republic which is completely surrounded by the highest of tariff walls. Canada is apparently good enough for him, even if the country has had a Liberal Government for five years and bids fair to continue with one.

AN OLD STORY

SIR ROBERT HORNE TOLD THE BRITISH House of Commons that Great Britain is in danger of losing the preference which Canada gives to her goods unless she gives a preference in return. He pointed out that propaganda had been circulated in this country to that effect.

Sir Robert Horne is quite right when he says that there is a movement in Canada to reduce or abolish the British preference. It is a prominent plank in the platform of the Conservative party of this country. Mr. Meighen and his followers made this clear during the last election campaign. It was nothing to them that we have been selling, as a result of the operation of that preference, more than three times as much to Great Britain as we have been buying from her.

It was Sir Robert Horne, after Mr. Snowden had delivered his budget of 1924, who said that unless Britain adopted the Imperial preference proposals which Mr. Baldwin made to the electorate, with such disastrous political results for himself, he could see the beginning of the break-up of the Empire.

Canada extended a preference to British goods in 1897 because Sir Wilfrid Laurier saw an advantage in that course. There were no strings to it. The Conservatives reduced it during the war, just when Britain was in most urgent need of markets, and the Liberals have increased it twice since that time.

Sir Robert Horne may take it for granted that the Canadian people have no desire to interfere with the policies of Great Britain any more than they would suppose the people of Great Britain have any desire to interfere with Canadian domestic policies.

ONLY FOUND GERMS

THE MORNING PAPER SAYS THAT now Mr. Arthur Meighen has made his "pronouncement of policies," the campaign which is to last for the better part of two months has begun. The word "policies," however, is merely by way of giving the Prime Minister the benefit of his own doubt. The Colonist apparently was unable to find any policy in the speech and confirms the facts by devoting more than a column to Mr. Meighen's and its own observations about the customs affair.

Although it is endeavoring to maintain an even balance, in which it is succeeding only indifferently, The Vancouver Daily Province seems to be disappointed with Mr. Meighen's speech. It says it is unfortunate that he left himself so little opportunity of dealing with the more positive planks of his platform, "and one can only hope . . . he will put them in the forefront of his campaign." In fact all our Vancouver contemporary found of the Conservative party's "constructive and honest policy" in the keynote speech was "the germs of it." They could hardly be called infectious.

The substitution by Mr. Meighen of "stable" protection for "high" protection as a campaign cry is pretty tough on Dr. Tolmie and Mr. Dickie who in the campaign last year demanded a tariff wall "as high as that of the United States." It will be rather entertaining to watch those two portly gentlemen climbing down from the top of the Tory tariff wall and trying to find just where stable protection is in their party tariff structure.

ABOUT BEACH BATHING

From The Los Angeles Times

The managers of the American Medical Association caution bathers to beware. Ocean water, being from 30 to 40 degrees colder than blood, causes a sudden shock to the whole system. Don't wade, but dive or duck. For the water's undercurrent veins contract, causing cramps, and the blood rushes headward, dizzying the brain. Complete immersion is urged, because the shock is evenly diffused throughout the body. Other "don'ts" are: "Don't go in until two hours after eating; don't struggle against an undertow, but go with it and call for help; don't drink before bathing; don't go in alone; don't wade with hands overhead; don't yell 'help' unless you need it. And don't stay in longer than from five to twenty minutes."

A THOUGHT

Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor—Prov. xix, 4.
Gross and vulgar minds will always pay a higher respect to wealth than to talent; for wealth, although it is a far less efficient source of power than talent, happens to be far more intelligible.—Colton

"PUT YOUR JOHN HANCOCK ON IT"

"PUT YOUR JOHN HANCOCK ON IT"

In the above sentence, the name "John Hancock" refers to one's signature, and the phrase is in quite general use. At the time of the signing of the American Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776, John Hancock signed his name to the document in large, firm letters, far more outstanding than any other signature—as a gesture of defiance toward the English King. This emphasis placed on his signature caused his name to be identified, in slang, with other signatures since that time.

REV. W. WYNN'S PROPHECY

To the Editor:—May I through your valued columns say a few words in reference to what is called the Rev. Walter Wynn's prophecy? The first part of the prophecy, one of the Great Pyramid on which the presumed prophecy is based, are not the findings of this reverend gentleman, but those of Mr. J. Davidson, M. I. of Stroud, E., and are founded on the confirmed measurements and work of the late Prof. C. Piazzi Smyth, one-time Professor of Astronomy in the University of Edinburgh and Astronomer Royal of Scotland; and Prof. Sir Philip James Fox, M. I., of London.

Mr. Davidson in his monumental work, "The Great Pyramid: Its Divine Message," merely points to the index symbol in the chronology of the Great Pyramid as indicating dates when more or less significant events may occur, and out of which the tremendous events forced on the great prophecies of the Bible and symbolized by the second low passage in the Great Pyramid, may or may not develop.

Mr. Davidson gives four dates for 1926, viz., March 6, May 30, July 20, and August 22, and one has only to turn to the Geneva dispatch of March 6 in our local newspapers to see the great disturbance in the League of Nations and international relations which commenced on that date. Then again the political overturn in Egypt at the end of May placed the control of that important strategic country in the hands of the avowed opponents of British interests. The July date is derived from a line drawn vertical to the centre of the subterranean chamber and may very probably indicate that the financial and other troubles of France to-day spring from some hidden source and with which no Government so far has been able to cope. We still have a month to go before reaching the August date, but let us not be too sceptical, but rather watchful, for there are powers in the world over which we have little influence and no control. Ephesians 6:12.

In conclusion may I say that the crucial events in Semite-Israelite-British history in continued succession from the Flood date 1656 A.M., have synchronized with the G.P. chronology as expressed by the British inch unit of measurement, one inch to the year from the commencement of the passage system, to the central vertical axis, the great steps, which were reached August 2, 1909, and from that point along the horizontal passage at one inch to the month of July days, marking off the beginning and ending of the Great War with wonderful accuracy.

Books and literature dealing with this marvellous building can be obtained in this city from the agents, 1234 Government Street.

NURSERYMEN PAY OBSERVATORY VISIT

Large Party Journeys to Saanich; "Benvenuto" and Other Gardens Visited

Nurserymen of the Pacific Coast Association, who are in convention here, last night visited the Dominion Government Astrophysical Observatory at Little Saanich Mountain, where they were given a thorough insight into the workings of the great observatory and into the powers of the large telescope.

During the afternoon delegates to the convention visited a number of the beautiful gardens of the city. Mountjoy, the home of P. R. Penner, was inspected in the earlier part of the afternoon, the nurserymen being delighted with the exquisite profusion of blooms. The home of Judge McIntosh was next visited.

Benvenuto, the home and gardens of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, without seeing which the education of a flower-lover is unfinished, was the object of a prolonged visit of the delegates during the late afternoon. Nearly 100 delegates journeyed to Brentwood to see the beautiful garden.

On their arrival back in town the whole party was entertained to a banquet at the home of Robert Layritz. This proved one of the most delightful functions of the convention.

Yesterday morning's business session included talks by H. W. Lyne, Department of Agriculture, on the fumigation of nursery stock entering the Province, and Prof. R. A. Stiller, on the pine blister rust as it affects currants and gooseberries. A number of matters pertaining to the nursery industry were also discussed.

Sessions were rushed this morning in order to bring about a conclusion of the convention this evening.

Keating

Keating, July 22.—The Young People's Club of the South Saanich United Church held an interesting meeting in the church parlor with a fair attendance of members. The evening was in charge of the religious committee, Miss S. Deering and W. McClure, and W. Hawkes, one of the club members, gave a most inspiring and interesting address on "Troubles," which was keenly followed by all present. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Hawkes for his address. A short business meeting was presided over by Miss Chas. MacNab. Miss Ida Hoyer reading the secretary's report and financial statement. The date for the annual club picnic was set for September 11, the place to be decided at a later date. The members were reminded of the joint picnic of the Sidney and South Saanich Farm Churches at the Experimental Farm on July 31. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

The South Saanich Farmers' and Women's Institutes held an excursion to Orcas Island via the Anacortes ferry on Saturday, July 23. The boat left at 8:30 a.m. and all must obtain tickets from the secretary or president of the Farmers' and meet at the Temperance Hall at 8 o'clock, from where transportation will be provided for those who have no cars. All members and friends are invited to bring their baskets for the day's outing.

The members of the South Saanich Women's Institute and the mothers of the girls were the guests of the Junior Institute Girls' Club at a delightful afternoon's outing at Mount Douglas Park on Wednesday. The guests were conveyed to the picnic grounds in cars kindly loaned for the occasion, and after arrival several interesting contests were entered in and ice cream was served. A peanut feeding contest caused much amusement and was finally won by Mrs. J. N. Wood and Mrs. Randall. A guessing competition, in which the answers were girls' names, were won by Mrs. H. Lawrence and Mrs. J. R. Patterson. After the contests, the guests repaired to the beach, and a social time was enjoyed on the sands, after which a delicious tea was served by the girls. Mrs. Mitchell, on behalf of the guests, moved a hearty vote of thanks to the girls for the pleasant outing, after which the party made the return trip home. Among those present were Mesdames W. D. Mitchell, Tanner, Styan, P. Young, W. Bickford, Randall, Giddens, W. S. Butler, A. Patterson, Misses John Lawrence, Blanche Sherrington, Margaret Mitchell, Nellie Styan, Christie MacNab, Hilda Styan, Edith Bickford, Doris Mitchell, Ruth Odberg, W. D. Mitchell and Master Lawrence Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Stratford and Mr. and Mrs. S. Perkins and families of Victoria are camping at Island View Beach for a few weeks.

All the pupils in the entrance examinations from Keating school were again successful in passing. The 1926 class was Adrian Butler 357, Claude Butler 341, Sadie Patterson 327, Lawrence Butler 316. The principal, Mrs. Parberry, deserves great credit for the splendid record, as this is the fifth year that a full class has been successful in passing.

Service will be conducted in the South Saanich United Church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Lees. At the close of the service the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

Miss Eleanor Yorke of Vancouver is the guest of Miss Hazel Lamont, Telegraph Road.

Miss Elsie Richardson has returned home after visiting her sister at Heller, V.I., for several weeks.

U.S. Official in Japan is Fined

Nagasaki, Japan, July 23.—Louis Vogelweid, a clerk in the United States Consulate here, was sentenced to pay a fine of 150 yen (about $75) on conviction of a charge of taking photographs in a fortified zone. Vogelweid was arrested at the Sasebo naval base early last month. He admitted he had taken photographs, but pleaded his offence was without intent.

NEW B.C. VOTE ON LIQUOR IS ASKED

Campaign For Funds Started in Vancouver; Early Plebiscite is Purpose

Vancouver, July 23.—"Dividends of 800 per cent are paid from the profits of liquor interests, most of which goes to brewers living outside of British Columbia," declared Robert Bolam, president of the Vancouver City Prohibition Association, in the course of an address here last night before a mass meeting of the Anti-Beer League.

The purpose of the meeting was the opening of a drive to raise a fund of $10,000 with which to carry on a campaign for abolition of the beer parlor system in British Columbia. The object of the campaign primarily is to obtain a petition signed by thirty-five per cent of the voters of the Province, requesting a new plebiscite on the prohibition issue. Mr. Bolam said the working men would be a whole lot better off drinking butter milk than sitting in the beer parlors guzzling beer. They should keep their money at home.

In refutation of a statement of Mr. Bolam's on the good work accomplished by prohibition in the United States, a member of the audience declared prohibition in the States was a failure.

"You can not legislate prohibition; you must educate the people to it," declared the unknown man.

SEATTLE MAN SPOKE

"We don't hope to legislate prohibition, but we are beginning to educate the people to prohibition tonight," said J. D. O'Connell of Seattle, the next speaker, who is internationally known as the "Orphan Friend" and an ardent prohibitionist, and who made an impassioned appeal for abolition of the beer parlor.

"A very small percentage of people are born with a taste for liquor. The majority of drunkards acquired it through the treating—ha ha!—beer parlors are the first and most iniquitous stepping-stone in that direction," he declared.

He would rather see two gallons of bootleg liquor sold than one sold legally, for then it would become outlawed and could be driven out. The worst form of prohibition was far ahead of any government control system, he said.

CHANGES IN VOTERS' LISTS ARE EXPLAINED

Ottawa, July 23.—In answer to an inquiry as to the Federal general election, the chief electoral officer said:

The procedure for the preparation of the lists will be exactly the same as that followed at the general election last year. The Dominion Elections Act does not provide for the use of the former Federal lists except at by-elections, when those are held within two years after a prior Dominion election in the same electoral district. Indeed, no other rule could be adopted, since to prepare the necessary copies of all the lists would be required at a general election would take nearly three months. This difficulty was referred to in my report presented to the House of Commons last January.

It is understood the procedure in all the provinces except Prince Edward Island, Saskatchewan and Manitoba will be that the provincial lists will be used as a basis for the preparation of those to be used in the Federal election. In rural polling divisions the provincial lists will be corrected, names being struck out or added by the rural registrars as circumstances require. In urban polling divisions all the names on the provincial lists will be transferred to the Federal lists, and in addition the names of those voters who have personally for registration or on whose behalf application is made by a relative or employer when the voter is ill or away from home. The preliminary lists thus prepared by urban registrars will be corrected by revising officers, who will be either local judges or substitute revising officers nominated by them.

In Prince Edward Island, Saskatchewan and Manitoba the procedure will be the same as in the other provinces, except that there will probably be no provincial lists available for use as a basis for the work of the registrars.

AUSTRALIA HEAVY AUTOMOBILE BUYER

Purchased £40,000,000
Worth From United States
Last Year

Advertising Manager of The Sydney Bulletin Passenger on Niagara

"During last year Australia spent £40,000,000, or approximately $200,000,000 with the United States for automobiles, and it is prophesied that in five years this will be doubled," declared Gilbert Thompson, advertising manager of The Sydney Bulletin, one of the largest newspapers in the Commonwealth, who passed through Victoria this morning aboard the R.M.S. Niagara. Mr. Thompson is directly associated with the automobile dealers in Australia, and he is now en route to the United States to interview all the prominent motor car manufacturers. Mr. Thompson is accompanied by his wife, and expects to remain in United States for two or three months. He proceeded to Vancouver on the Niagara, and from there he will go to Chicago and Detroit and thence on to New York. Following the completion of his business Mr. Thompson intends to make a thorough tour of the United States.

DOUBLED

In speaking of the automobile business Mr. Thompson stated that Australia's trade with the United States last year was just double that of the year before. Taking this into consideration it was practically certain the present business would be doubled in five years, the visitor declared.

"American made cars are in keeping with Australian conditions, and this is one of the big reasons why they are such good sellers," Mr. Thompson told The Times. Last year's automobile business between Australia and Europe only amounted to $11,000,000, just over a quarter of the trade carried out with the United States the visitor informed.

WANTS TO SEE BOBBY JONES

"One of my main ambitions when I arrive in the United States is to go and see Bobby Jones," Mr. Thompson declared. He also stated that he wished to have the honor of watching Walter Hagen perform. "Out in Australia they think that Bobby is the most wonderful and colorful golfer the world has ever produced," the newspaper man said. Mr. Thompson stated that the Australians are in favor of the averaged priced automobile, and that there was a fine array of Packards to be seen in all parts of the country.

NIAGARA DOCKS FROM AUSTRALIA

Canadian-Australasian Liner
Brought 361 Passengers and 950 Tons of Cargo

After an uneventful voyage up from New Zealand, Australia, Java and Honolulu the Canadian-Australasian liner Niagara, Capt. Mawson, arrived at the William Head quarantine station this morning at 5 o'clock. She docked at Pier 2 just a few minutes before 7 o'clock. A number of the first class passengers disembarked here.

In cargo the Niagara brought a total of 950 tons, 130 tons of which were put off the ship at Vancouver. Included in the freight discharged at this port were three automobiles, which were lifted off the ship on to the wharf by the giant sling of the Niagara.

Three hundred and fifty-five bags of mail were discharged here, including 208 for the United States, thirty-eight for local distribution and nine for Eddie Hubbard of the air mail post. The Niagara brought up an average consignment of mail, there being approximately 900 bags all told on board.

The Niagara cleared at 9:30 o'clock for Vancouver.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain
How to Treat

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to the presence of acids in the stomach. The excess of hydrochloric acid, the acid of digestive juices, the delicate stomach lining is irritated, causing the delayed and food sour, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well. Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Laxatives, cathartics, and other drugs, instead of getting rid of the acid, only add to the trouble. The stomach, when it is in a state of acid, is in a state of fermentation, and the food is not properly digested. The stomach is a weak organ, and it is not to be treated with harsh drugs. TURNOVER TAX IS UNDER DISCUSSION

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce to-day discussed the suggested turnover tax after hearing criticism of the scheme by President Schwenger, who claimed that the tax offered all the discriminatory objections of the personal property tax and cited cases where he believed the tax could be avoided.

He asserted handicaps were imposed on British Columbia businesses in competition with concerns located in other provinces. Mr. Schwenger also indicated advantages to businesses and advised careful balancing of these points against the disadvantages cited.

"There is this much to be said in favor of the tax, that it is only a heavier substitute than the personal property tax to any concern which turns their stock over more than five times per year," said the president.

Goulding Wilson also cited burdens in the incidence of the tax, but taking into account the members of the board will study the points set out by Mr. Schwenger in his brief.

"For their vision in creating such a charming beauty spot in the wilderness," Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, owners of the property, were made the subjects of a special resolution at the convention of the Pacific Coast Association of Nurserymen at the Empress Hotel to-day.

The resolution was presented to the session by A. Brownell, of Portland, and adopted with acclamation. The convention in its resolution also commended Mr. and Mrs. Butchart "for their hospitality in opening their home to the public."

Yesterday those attending the convention after being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Butchart, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Layritz at a dinner on the lawn of the Layritz Nurseries, Royal Oak. About 125 persons sat down to the dinner. Later they were entertained at the "Astronomical Observatory."

As 1927 will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the association, the convention chose Portland as the site for the next year. This was on the invitation of Mr. Brownell and others, including the Chamber of Commerce there, who urged that the association go back to the scene of its birth to renew its youth.

This afternoon the convention acted as its president, Mr. McDonald of the Oregon Nursery Co., known as the father of the association and who was its first president. Vice-presidents elected were Mr. C. G. Gilchrist of Portland; California, Dr. J. Mann of Niles; Washington, George Lawler of Tacoma; Idaho, Charles T. Hawkes of Caldwell; Texas, F. E. Walton of Salt Lake; British Columbia, Richard Layritz of Victoria; C. A. Tommerson of Burton, Wash., was unanimously re-elected executive secretary.

The convention to-day discussed advantage of getting uniform legislation all along the Pacific Coast on horticultural matters, education of the public on horticultural matters, fumigation, diseases of plants, and diseases were given by Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture for

STRAIGHT FIGHTS TO GIVE LIBERALS IMPROVED CHANCES

Figures Indicate Labor Candidates Vote Only Saved Tories on Mainland

Duncan to be Scene of First Island Nomination Convention To-morrow

If three-cornered seats can be eliminated in the election contests on the lower mainland Liberals will have an excellent chance of breaking strongly into the present Conservative stronghold there. This is the prediction of Liberal managers, who are getting ready now for party nominations in Vancouver Centre and adjoining ridings.

To support this assertion Liberal leaders produced figures showing in detail the results of the last Federal election around Vancouver. An analysis of these shows plainly that a substantial majority of people in all the four Conservative ridings of Vancouver Centre, Vancouver South, Burrard and New Westminster voted against Conservative candidates and in favor of Liberal and Labor candidates. In each case Liberals would have been elected in a straight two-party fight if Labor had supported the Liberal candidates, as it usually does under similar circumstances.

LACKED MAJORITY
In Vancouver Centre Hon. H. H. Stevens did not receive anything like a majority of the votes cast. While his total was 5,422 as against Mr. McGeer's vote of 8,379, the Labor vote aggregated 1,799. The Liberal-Labor majority was thus 558 over Mr. Stevens's entire vote.

In Burrard the Liberal-Labor majority was 150, in South Vancouver 344, and in New Westminster 2,295. Effort was made to support the Liberal candidates, as it usually does under similar circumstances. In negotiations to this end are successful it is believed the Liberal Party will be able to increase its present standing in British Columbia substantially.

POOLEY IN CHARGE
Nanaimo Conservatives are preparing to-day for their convention in Duncan to-morrow, when they will choose a candidate. C. H. Dickie, who represented the riding in the last Parliament, will be the unanimous choice of the convention.

Expected to be the Liberal-Labor majority in the riding is the Liberal Party will be able to increase its present standing in British Columbia substantially.

YES, SINCE SATURDAY
Hostess (trying to fill a gap in the conversation): Mr. Madger, I'm sure you will help entertain us with a song.

Madger: Sorry, but I'm afraid my vocal efforts are confined to singing in my bath.

Oh, do sing, and I'll warn them that you're rather out of practice.

SHOWERS EXPECTED TO BREAK DROUGHT

Coast Due to Get Relief From Dry Weather and Forest Fire Menace

Interior Fires Still Serious But General Situation is Easier

Forestry officials, battling with forest fires at points all over British Columbia, were cheered to-day by reports from Gonzales Observatory, indicating that showers are due to fall along the coast during the next twenty-four hours. The present dull weather, experts of the Observatory informed forestry service heads, is likely to culminate in rain which will help rangers to get existing outbreaks under control.

At present the situation along the coast is fairly easy, following several days of dull weather during which rangers were able to make good progress in their efforts. In the interior, however, several serious outbreaks are causing alarm. Fires north of Revelstoke in the Columbia Valley, near Princeton, outside Penticton and in West Kootenay, are keeping large crews of men busy.

CITY CHALLENGES ENGINEER'S RIGHT TO REOPEN ISSUE

Sooke Waterworks Construction Contract Subject of Legal Battle

City Contends Mr. Bell Was Never Appointed in Fact and Without Right to Sit

After ten years of disturbed rest the Sooke waterworks construction contract was turned in its grave this morning and its bones of contention inspected from every angle.

For over two hours and a half W. Wentworth Bell, independent engineer named to replace Wynne Meredith, who supervised the Sooke waterworks, listened to arguments by W. J. Taylor, K.C., and H. A. Maclean, K.C., on behalf of the Westhorne Lumber Company and the city respectively.

Mr. Bell made no secret of the difficulty of his position, between two fires. He had taken legal advice, he said, in the light of recent proceedings against him, and had come to the conclusion that his duty was to call a hearing and bring both parties together. In the face of request by the city that he stay his hands until the legal status of the case is determined he would postpone the hearing, and again take advice on his position, he said.

CITY'S CASE
The city's case was briefly put. The contracting company had left unchallenged the final statement of the city made to the U.S. Fidelity and Guaranty Company in 1916, in which $242,000 was said to be due from the contractors in penalties, and had been reversed in every court to which the dispute had been taken. The company was now debarred by statutory limitations in proceeding with a time-lapsed cause of action.

Alternatively Mr. Maclean took the stand that the City Council had gone on record as favoring Mr. Bell for appointment by the courts to intervene in the matter, but in fact no such appointment had ever been made, and Mr. Bell was without status to hear anything or make any move in the matter.

SEEKING DECLARATION
The suit commenced by the city yesterday against Mr. Bell, explained Mr. Maclean, was a friendly one for a declaration that the Westhorne Lumber Company had now no cause of action, and for an injunction restraining Mr. Bell from acting in any capacity in the matter. This would be pushed to a conclusion as soon as the court vacation was over, prominent counsel for the city.

Mr. Taylor submitted that Mr. Bell did not have to wait for the trial of the city's issue, but could proceed at once to an accounting. He showed, he said, authority for such a reference at this time, and pointed to several phases of the dispute which had remained undetermined by any court.

The contractor had been hampered by a lack of any approved plans on which to get to work; had been called upon to install a system that at no point coincided with the specifications put up to him, and had been harassed by unfair criticism from the city's representatives while, at the time the city was clamoring at the contractor for the issuance of cheques which were heavily discounted it was itself in default to the contractor, continued Mr. Taylor.

SHOTGUN INJUNCTIONS
Further delays had been manifested in an injunction by the owner of lands at the site of the dam, backed up by the appearance of the

DOGS WORRY SHEEP AND OWNERS FINED

Two Colwood Residents Are Prosecuted Under Sheep Protection Act

Frank Wilfert and Frank Garnett, Colwood farmers, were each fined $10 in the Provincial Police Court this morning by Magistrate Jay, for allowing their dogs to run at will between the hours of sunset and sunrise, contrary to the Sheep Protection Act. Wilfert also paid a fine of $5 for failing to have his dog licensed.

The Provincial Police pointed out this morning that they were going to exert every effort to keep stray dogs out of the sheep folds of the lower island, and with this in view will prosecute all offenders under the Sheep Protection Act. Loss to flocks through the carelessness of farmers owning vicious dogs had long been complained of here, they stated to-day.

VICTORIA PIANIST ACCORDS Ovation

Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green Plays For Summer School Students

Unusually interesting, distinctly historic, and delightfully opportune was the pianoforte recital given by Gertrude Huntley Green last evening in the High School auditorium, under the auspices of the Department of Education, Province of British Columbia. Not only was it fitting that a local artist such as Mrs. Green be engaged, but the occasion served as an opportunity to local musical people particularly to hear for the first time, and in a personal and public manner, through the courtesy of its local representative, the re-enacting of a record made by the recitalist in New York exclusively for the Ampico by Victoria's distinguished and now well-known pianist. It is a tribute to the gifts and achievement of our fellow citizen and a signal honor to her home town, from the fact that it is the first record for the Ampico made by a Canadian artist.

Surely was Mrs. Green on her mettle, by reason of an almost insurmountable difficulty through an injury to one of her fingers, incurred a few hours before her recital which for the moment threatened a complete cancellation. But even thus handicapped she played superbly, and as usual selected and offered a brilliant programme. So manifest were these that throughout the evening the audience spared neither their applause nor their appreciation and requests for further numbers. Her recitation was most flattering, indeed. There can be no doubt of Mrs. Green's position in the realm of pianoforte attainment. Mistress of technique through much study and continuity of exercise; possessing exalted ideas of beauty; steadfast of purpose; pin-pointed as an "intellectual"; deep of insight and concentration; and perfectly schooled, she, in her recent triumphs and, again, last evening, has fulfilled public estimates of her gifts and of her playing.

Her programme of four groups opened with Schubert's suave and fluent "Theme and Variations," Op. 142, followed by Hummel's "Favorite Rondo," delightfully given, and the "Fantasy and Fugue" in G minor (Bach-Liszt), its rendering commanding admiration for clarity and scope of the player's unflinching fluency of execution.

The second group by modern composers, included two numbers by her, and the master, Leopold Godowsky, "Old Vienna," and the "Watteau Paysage," one of the thirty moods in August, 1919. Rachmaninoff's G major Prelude; York Bowen's imaginative "Serenade," a brilliant example of the younger school of English music; and "Triana," by the Spanish composer, Albeniz, delicately descriptive of the joyous life of Spain, both these latter receiving the most beautiful treatment.

Group three was the Ampico record to which allusion has been made. This was the "Danza Festiva" from "Veronese Walse" (Forgotten Melodies), Op. 2, No. 1, by Medtner, one of Russia's present day composers. The composition is a festive dance, colorful, almost barbaric, and characteristic of Russian life. The dancers are garbed in brilliant embroidered robes, wearing head-dresses of beads and jewels. They move with rhythmic and sharply accented steps and there is stamping of feet and clapping of hands, and now and then snatches of national songs. The music is modern and national with the colorful harmonies and vigorous beauty of the music of the country. The recitalist—the producer—first played the whole work, the recording piano then repeating it while Mrs. Green sat at her piano playing certain passages, then ceasing, and again continuing with the record, and so forth to the final chords. At its conclusion these present gave vociferous demonstrations of delight recalling the artist again and again to the platform. The number thus rendered made a distinct impression.

The final group consisted of three well-known numbers by Chopin, the "Fantasie"; the "Nocturne," taken from Georges Sand's diary, with its beautiful hostess's song, beautifully played; and the gigantic "Polonaise" in A flat major, characteristic of the Pole's vividly energetic and rhythmic suppleness. Mrs. Green's Chopin is always admirable. Her interpretative views of this Slavonic composer are decisive, superb in tonal color, perfect in clarity of utterance, brilliant in power and penetrative in its dramatic flavor. Again did she receive the most demonstrative plaudits of her hearers, who even after two additional numbers, "The Song" (Borron) and "In the Woods" (Staub), were loath to leave the building.

During the evening Mrs. Green rose to great heights of artistry and her reception throughout was unmistakable to a degree. She, too, received many handsome floral tokens. The recital was under the direction of Ida Whitshire of Vancouver.

LIQUOR INQUIRY IN CALIFORNIA

San Francisco, July 23.—Hotel managers, detectives and employees, under-cover agents, automobile drivers and a wealthy and attractive woman to-day were the component factors in an investigation by United States Attorney George Hatfield into the manner in which Colonel Ned M. Green, federal prohibition administrator here, has conducted his office.

Hatfield announced the matter would be submitted to a federal grand jury next Monday and be put down as the foundation of what he said would be a thorough sifting of Green's administration of office. By issuing more than twenty-one subpoenas the government would seek to prove liquor confiscated by prohibition agents was used freely at parties alleged to have been given by Colonel Green.

Colonel Green met Hatfield's move with the announcement that he had known that "efforts were being made to discredit me as prohibition administrator" and that the whole issue had been invoked politically.

TO-DAYLast Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, July 23 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Professional efforts to depreciate values had the effect of forcing some of the prominent issues close to the lowest point of week's reaction, but this brought out no appreciable volume of liquidation, and the market course turned in an upward direction, recovering a good part of the ground lost in the early forenoon.

Aided from better French political outlook, and the improved status of the country's currency outlook, our domestic situation was uncovered many bright factors, such as the large increase in earnings shown by Bethlehem Steel and Colorado Fuel and Iron for the first part of the year, and the fact that the prominent carriers making their appearance were of a bullish flavor, also an extra dividend was ordered by the United Gas and Electric Company, and last, but of consequence, no change was announced in the Y. Federal Reserve rate for the week. At this time with such a favorable background we believe the market should do better, but it may take the market some time to digest the recent selling pressure, and until this is done we may witness more of a two-sided affair.

New York, July 23 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—The Wall Street Journal's stock market edition this afternoon says: With the tension over the French situation relieved by further recovery in France and bullish hopes regarding the possibility of an increased bank rate after Thursday's close was dissipated, the market gave a better account of itself to-day.

Professionals, working on the short side, did not give up the fight without a struggle, and determined drives were launched against the leading industrials during the early stage. Tractor shares rallied sharply on the settlement of Interborough strike. But the upward trend at no time bore anything like its recent aggressive tone, and price movements showed traces of nervousness.

Stocks displayed a great deal of nervousness during the first hour, caused by the uncertainties of foreign news. Many traders thought the recent selling waves forecast a bigger sell-off than the one which had been expected over six weeks, while others were strongly bullish, and were quite willing to acquire additional holdings on reactions. As a consequence the market was extremely irregular without making substantial progress in either direction.

Time money against stock exchange was in demand at 4 1/2 per cent. Call money ruled 4 per cent. all day.

New York, July 23.—The Journal of Commerce to-day says that United States and Germany are to hold a conference on iron in Berlin.

New York, July 23.—Marland oil earned $2.48 a share in first six months. Columbia Gas earned $2.42 a share in first six months.

New York, July 23.—The steadiness of the French market has been a factor to the belief that M. Poincaré would succeed in forming the strongest cabinet France has had in years.

New York, July 23.—The New York Federal reserve bank made no change yesterday in its rediscount rate of 3 1/2 per cent, despite rumors to the contrary which had been circulated on floor and which caused some selling towards the close.

New York, July 23.—The Bethlehem Steel president did not give up the fight on the general business outlook and especially as regards the steel outlook.

New York, July 23.—Colorado Fuel and Iron reports for quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,331,000, or 13 1/2 cents a share, against $1,331,000, or 13 1/2 cents a share, for the same quarter a year ago.

San Francisco, July 23.—Southern California Edison June balance $1,734,011, against $1,734,011 in June, 1925. Six months $1,416,749 against $1,253,047.

New York, July 23.—I.R.T. subway strikers concede loss of strike and will return to work.

New York, July 23.—Erie directors will meet to-day to consider the proposals of Van Sweringen in Nickel Plate merger deal.

New York, July 23.—Bethlehem Steel in quarter ended June 30 net income of $1,331,000, or 13 1/2 cents a share, against $1,331,000, or 13 1/2 cents a share, for the same quarter a year ago.

New York, July 23.—Block Maloney today says: "On any further decline we look for more investment absorption. You will see more forward movement in stocks."
